If you have items to pack, please bring them to the church by that Wednesday afternoon so we have time to set up. If you have any questions, please contact Crystal Ritter or Brandy Colson.

Mark your calendars for Saturday, November 14th, at 5:00 pm for a fun evening of food, fellowship, and pie! We'll begin with a potluck meal as we get to know a Youth Pastor candidate, followed by our exciting pie-tasting and judging contest. Bring your favorite homemade pie and enter for a chance to win a prize!

DISCIPLESHIP GROUPS

Two new Discipleship Groups are starting in November. On November 8th, the Haddon class will begin a study of The Baptist Faith and Message, exploring this foundational document of Southern Baptist churches and why it matters. On November 22nd, the women's group will begin a new Advent Bible study, All Who Draw Near, which explores the journeys of the key people in the Christmas story. Everyone is encouraged to join one of these groups as we grow in our faith and understanding of God's Word!

Life Line Screening will be here on Thursday, December 3, 2026, offering safe, painless, non-invasive preventive health screenings for anyone over 40 years of age. These screenings that are not typically part of a routine physical. The screenings start at $129. Look for the flyers around church to get more information and to learn how to register.

Join us on Wednesday, December 9th, for a special "American Christmas" concert featuring the Mark Dubbeld Family! We'll share a meal together at 5:00 pm, followed by an evening of uplifting gospel music and powerful testimonies beginning at 6:30 pm. Invite your family and friends to celebrate the Christmas season with us for a wonderful evening of music, fellowship, and encouragement!

The Nursery needs two paid workers to help Sunday mornings during Sunday School or Worship and on Sunday evenings. If you are interested, please see Brandy Colson for more information.
